

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XVII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, MAY 21, 1889.

NO. 29.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—County Court to-day, Monday. Not as large crowd as usual is expected in town.

—One of our most popular young ladies of the west end will be married in a few days.

—Gilcher Bros. have about everything ready and will begin the addition on their hotel at once.

—Mr. Richard Foley is having a glass front put in the building that Dr. Grant occupies. Dr. G. has renewed the lease he has on it.

—This hot weather is the thing for the coons. We are informed that at least half of them in town never go to bed at all in warm weather.

—Miss Lizzie Salter has returned from Louisville, after a short visit to friends. Miss Nellie Shumate went to Louisville Sunday to see friends.

—Green Lay, for attempting to kill John Hammer, was tried here Thursday. He was allowed bail in the sum of $150, which he failed to give, and was sent back to jail.

—Dr. A. S. Price and Carroll Reid went to Hustonville Saturday to join a crowd of boys and girls who were going fishing. The lively stables here furnished them ten turnouts for the occasion.

—Miss Mary McRoberts now has her art class in the Sneed residence, corner 3d and Walnut streets. The pupils assemble for instruction on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week.

—William, son of W. W. Snidley, who returned from the Insane Asylum Thursday, died next day. He was accidentally shot in the head a few years ago and has since been in a demented condition.

—Mr. Chapin while on his way from Lebanon to Cincinnati missed connection at Junction City and came on here to wait for the next train and talk water works to our people. His estimate for building water works is near $6,500. He constructed the water works at Lebanon.

—It is useless for me to tell you anything about the base ball game between your namesakes and the Centre College team, as your B. M. was here and will tell you readers all about it. I will tell you the reason of one of the members after the defeat over here: "The reason we got beat this time was because we did not make enough scores." Gate fees $20, admitting ladies free.

—It is more than probable that Rev. Steve Holcombe, who has been preaching at the Methodist church, will leave the first of the week. It is the general opinion that he has done some good during his stay. While there have not been many additions to the church, still he has put people to thinking and his sermons will result in good finally. Rev. Settles, of Louisville, will preach during the remainder of the meeting.

Grace is Dead.

On the first day of April, Grace, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Swope, died. But a few short months she lived to gladden her parents with her baby ways, and at the very time when the spring flowers lift their heads to smile above the bursting clouds, this young home's flower looked toward mother and God, and smiled and died. By the side of their child the parents knelt and poured out their souls in grief but death makes silence mock the misery of sorrow and hushes the lips when most we plead for speech. It may be best after all to have these wintry nights and shadowed days, the breaking of the image when we love it most, for out of stress and strain and ruin have always come the best of gifts to men.

"Another sunbeam gone from earth,
Another star declined,
Another love-lad called called to be
In Christ's own garden twined,
"Another eye has softly shut
Its blue-veined curtain down,
Another soul has left its cross
To wear its heaven's crown."

"Another flower, its love-cup filled,
Folds all its sweetness in;
Another soul is born in heaven
Without a spot of sin;
Once more the crystal gates of light
Have shut an angel in."

JOHN BELL GIBSON.

—Seven hundred houses in a suburb of Quebec were burned and nearly 6,000 people are homeless. The loss reaches $600,000, with small insurance.

There have been more chickens destroyed by cholera since the war than there were men killed during the war, Garter's chicken cholera cure will soon stop that. It is sold and warranted by McRoberts & Stagg.

You Cannot Afford

At this season of the year to be without a good reliable diarrhoea tablet in the house, as cramps, colic, diarrhoea and all inflammation of the stomach and bowels are exceedingly dangerous if not attended to at once. One bottle of Beggs' Diarrhoea Balm will do more good in cases of the kind than any other medicine on earth. We guarantee it. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

The Pride of Woman.

A clear pure and transparent skin is always a sign of good blood, and all persons troubled with dark greasy, yellow or blotched skin can rest assured that their blood is out of order. A few doses of Beggs' Blood Purifier & Blood Maker will remove the blood and the skin will become clear and transparent. Try it, and if satisfaction is not given it will cost you nothing. It is fully warranted. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Woodberry, an elderly spinster who teaches school in Cincinnati, followed Henry Menke to Louisville and shot him in the head because he refused to stand to his promise to marry. She was held in $150 for further trial.

—Mr. Ed L. Tanner, of the firm of K. L. Tanner & Son, millers at McKinney, and Miss Laura Owen, eloped to Chattanooga and were married Saturday morning. Mr. Tanner is a splendid young man and his selection of his helpmeet evinced his good taste. They will make their home in Texas and have gone thither.

—On Friday, Miss Lizzie Farris, accompanied by her mother, went to Danville to visit relatives and on that afternoon Miss Lizzie attended the ball game. As is natural with young people who have felt the effects of cupid's dart, Mr. George C. Keller, Jr., of this office, attended also and paid the usual marked attention to her. A thought of an elopement had been in the minds of both for some time and as they had found courtship more interesting and decidedly more enjoyable than ball playing, their attentions and conversation as well, were turned from the sportive to the delightful and there and then they determined to outwit both her parents and the public by skipping by the light of the moon from Danville to Junction City and aboard the Louisville train for that noted Grotto Green—Jeffersonville. Somebody had to go along and act as best man and a little swearing, etc., and E. C. Walton was selected. That evening Mr. Keller called on his would-be bride at Mr. Price's, where she was visiting and soon after they left under the pretense of calling on a mutual lady friend, in another portion of the town, but hardly had they gotten a square from Mr. Price's when they were overtaken by Mr. Walton in a carriage. This they entered and in a short while the party was safely housed at Junction City to await the train which did not arrive till 2:47 a. m. In vain the young couple, matrimonial intent, tried to sleep, but excitement was too high and the few hours there were as many years. Finally the train came and all aboarded, and thinking they were safe and out of the reach of all began to nap a little. As the three were enjoying the much needed rest all of a sudden the train jumped the track at Riley's and ran several hundred yards over ties and switches, shaking the soon to be bridal party up fearfully and searing them out of their wits. Of course they were in a dilemma, thinking perhaps Miss Farris' parents would object to the consummation and rush to the scene. A wait of some four hours brought a train from Greensburg and again they started. Additional worry of delay at Lebanon Junction and South Louisville made their eight hours behind when they arrived at the J. M. & L. depot for Jeffersonville. The river was soon crossed and a breath of free air from the Hoosier State drawn. Straightway to the Court-house for the license and thence to Justice Keigwin's office, they were made husband and wife in a few moments after crossing over the Kentucky line. After the ceremony the happy pair, accompanied by their business manager, ferried over to Louisville, stopped at the Galt House and returned home Sunday and have taken rooms at the Portman House. The opposition on the part of Miss Farris' parents was chiefly due to her youth and they admit that they would not have attempted an interference had they known they could have put a stop to it. Of Miss Lizzie too much cannot be said. She possesses a fine beauty of face and disposition and is a most accomplished young lady, while Mr. Keller, who has held a position in this office for a number of years and is a personal friend of the writer, is a most worthy young gentleman and a good business man. He has gift and perseverance and makes a success of anything he goes at. He is an expert in his line and when necessity compels can pen as readable a paragraph as the next man. We predict for them a happy voyage over life's fitful sea and wish for them a long life, monotonous because of its unvaried happiness. "In their youth may they live in joy, in their age may they live in peace. E. C. W."

—We are in receipt of a Fort Scott paper giving an account of the marriage of Miss Mamie Chenault to Mr. Austin M. Keene, which occurred at the First Presbyterian church there, May 15th, at 8 p. m. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the platform being a bed of sweet flowers. Surrounding the whole was a railing of smilax, in the center of which were the entrance gates. Every available seat was taken by the time the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chenault entered, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Waller Chenault, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chenault, Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. John W. Harris, of Nortonville, Kas., and other members of the family. Immediately after the family had been seated, the groomsmen and bridesmaids, Mr. D. F. Campbell and Miss Flora Rice,

Mr. S. M. Miller and Miss Susie Oldham, of Columbia, Mo., Mr. G. B. Watson, of Kansas City, and Miss Grace Cornany, entered, followed by the bride, who was accompanied by her sister, Miss Hallie, supported by two lovely little flower girls, Gladys Green and Helen Miller. Simultaneous with the entrance of the bride from the east door, the groom entered from the west side, accompanied by his brother, Mr. George Keene. As the bridal party entered, Prof. Bryant executed that beautiful Wedding March of Mendelssohn, sweet and suggestive in itself. Dr. Porter received the young couple upon their arrival at the altar, and in a very impressive manner united the two lovers, hand and heart for life, with a chain, which we hope will always be linked with down. A brilliant reception was then given at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Chenault "made particularly enjoyable by the rich delicacies prepared and served after the most approved manner, by that most popular of all hostesses, the Huntington House. The refreshments were served on the second floor, from buff tables occupying the centre of the room and covered with lace cloths. The table service was decorated ware. The bride's cake and also that of the bridegroom were placed on a stand in the main parlors and each cut their own and presented pieces in lace-lined boxes to each of the wedding guests. The bride was attired in a rich, white corded silk Empire style, long train, trimmed in front with novelty silk. Her head trimming consisted of a beautiful bridal veil of white illusion, ornamented with silver pins. She carried in her hand an elegant bouquet of fragrant Marshal Neil roses. Miss Chenault never looked lovelier than on last evening, when, from her own choice, she placed her future in the keeping of her life lord. Mr. Keene is one of our most exemplary and popular young men, a member of the prosperous law firm of Keene & Campbell. His honesty, integrity and ability have won for him an enviable place in the opinion of the entire community. He has secured for his companion in life one of the sweetest young ladies of which Fort Scott can boast, cultured and refined, possessing all of the qualities that go to make a charming associate and a noble wife. The hundreds of friends of the lovely bride at her old Kentucky home send happy greetings and heartfelt blessings for her and the man of her choice both here and hereafter.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—The Park's Hill Camp Meeting will begin July 21 and on August 1 Sam Jones will arrive and remain 10 days.

—The General Assembly of the Northern Presbyterian Church is in its 101st session at New York, with Dr. W. C. Roberts, of Chicago, as moderator. The body represents 28 Synods, 210 Presbyteries, 6,500 churches, with 760,000 communicants and a total population of 2,300,000.

—A letter from Bro. Barnes, too late for this issue, says he would start on the 16th and be here in time to preach at the Court-house next Sunday, 20th, at 3 o'clock and deliver his lectures on the "Lost Tribes of Israel" at the Opera House the following Monday and Tuesday nights.

—The Christian church in Stanford is preparing for another glorious meeting this fall. Rev. John Bell Gibson announced at the morning service Sunday that he had written to a very celebrated evangelist to assist him and that he wanted the church to begin now preparing for the meeting.

—The Presbytery of Grand Forks, Dak. has suspended Rev. Charles McLean from his pastorate for the offense of taking a glass of beer in a saloon. Mr. McLean's defense was that his physician advised him to drink beer and that he preferred to take it openly, rather than to sneak home with it and pull down the curtains.

—Nelson Colbert was hung at Washington Friday for the murder of another negro.

—The Superior Court has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Young Triplet, of Owensboro, vs. Louis Seebach and others, of Louisville, to recover $1,905.50 lost in poker, and decides that although Mr. Seebach was not in the game, it was played in his house and he was a beneficiary and must refund.

A New Kind of Insurance

Has been put in operation by the manufacturers of Dr. Pierce's medicines. His "Golden Medical Discovery" and "Favorite Prescription" are sold by druggists under the manufacturers' positive guarantee. Either benefit or a complete cure is thus obtained, or money paid for these medicines is returned. The certificate of guarantee given in connection with sale of these medicines is equivalent to a policy of insurance. The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures all humors and blood taints, from whatever cause arising such as scalds, diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings. The "Favorite Prescription" cures all those derangements and weaknesses peculiar to women.

Don't hawk, hawk low and blow, disgusting everybody, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Why is it?

That people linger along always complaining about that continual first feeling? One bottle of Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker will entirely remove this feeling, give them a good appetite and regulate digestion. A. R. Penny, Druggist.

DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION.

Steps to be Taken to Nominate a Candidate For the Legislature.

At a meeting of the Democratic County Committee on Saturday, May 18th, 1889, it was

Resolved that delegates to be called at the voting places of each precinct in the county on Saturday, June 1st, at 2 p. m., to appoint delegates to meet in Stanford on Monday, June 3d, 1889, to select a candidate to represent the county in the legislature. Each precinct shall be entitled to one vote for every 50 and fraction over 25 cast for the democracy at last presidential election, which gives Stanford precinct No. 1, 6 votes; Stanford No. 2, 3; Walnut Flat 2, Crab Orchard 5, Hustonville 6, Turnersville 3, Waynesburg 2, Kingsville 2, Highland 1. Full meetings at the delegates' conventions are earnestly requested.

T. D. NEWLAND, Chairman.

J. B. PAXTON, Secretary.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Quarterly meeting was held at the Methodist church Saturday and Sunday. George Meece, a miner of Pittsburg, was badly hurt last week by slate falling on him, breaking his collar-bone and otherwise injuring him.

—The pay train passed up Friday and left considerable money along the line in this county among the saw mill men. Some of the mills convenient to the road do most of their sawing for the railroad company.

—The locusts are here in great abundance and the hogs are faring sumptuously, especially the razor-backs and sand-splitters, which have rooted up the woods like plowed fields for these ancient pests.

—Rev. O. F. Duvall and Joe McKee returned from the Cumberland a few days ago with a fine lot of fish, including a sturgeon which was a considerable curiosity to most all who saw it. Fishing is good in the Cumberland, below the falls.

—There were several heavy rain and wind storms in this section the first of last week. One house about three miles south of here was blown down and many large trees near town were uprooted. A house was struck by lightning in Barbourville and several men near were badly stunned.

—But little business was done in court last week. No murder cases were tried, the first on docket being continued, but a good many misdemeanor cases were disposed of. Tom Stringer got a two years' sentence to the penitentiary for killing a negro about two years ago. He is also indicted for malicious shooting. The last case tried Saturday was that of Charles Chestnut, charged with detaining a female, which resulted in a hung jury. Harnald Schuppback, a Swiss lad about 17 years old, was indicted for manslaughter. In a drunken row at a dance in the colony, about two months ago, he fatally stabbed one man and seriously wounded two others with a cheese knife.

—The woman's suffrage bill was defeated in Michigan.

—Robert Y. Thomas, whose assinine performances in the legislature will be remembered by all who burdened their minds with the acts of members of 1885, shot and killed George Elmer, a merchant of Caseyville, Friday. Thomas, who publishes a paper had been printing derogatory articles on Elmer, who warned him to desist. His last paper was rougher than the others and Elmer attacked the editor, shooting him in the leg. Thomas then fired at him with the above result.

A Woman's Discovery.

Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and was so much relieved on taking the first dose that she slept all night, and with one bottle she has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at A. R. Penny's drug store.
